Regina Summer Strings 2017

Monday July 3 to Saturday July 8
Westminster Church, Regina

Regina Summer Strings will present an inclusive program for string players of all levels and ages celebrating a community learning and loving music together. With a primary focus on chamber music, students will have the opportunity to work closely with the guest String Quartet, as well as to develop musical and technical abilities through orchestra and master classes with the outstanding RSS faculty. There will be many opportunities to perform and to listen throughout the daily schedule, as well as inspiring concerts. The week will culminate in a public student concert featuring orchestral and chamber music works.

The Regina Chamber Music Festival will again present concerts in the evenings.

Guest musicians: ATTACCA QUARTET comprised of Amy Schroeder, violin, Keiko Tokunaga, violin, Nathan Schram, viola, Andrew Yee, cello.

“They may be a relatively young ensemble, but already they come very close to epitomizing the string quartet ideal...Mastery like this is scarce enough in quartets that have played together for decades.” THE WASHINGTON POST

Also Regina’s own quartet of Regina Symphony Orchestra principals, Simon MacDonald, violin, Christian Robinson, violin, Jonathan Ward, viola, and Simon Fryer, cello will be part of the Regina Chamber Music Festival and Regina Summer Strings 2017.

“Effective education is based on love, approval, joy, and consistently successful experiences within a high-functioning, aspiring, nurturing community.” ERIC BOOTH
